MEMORANDUM

Professional Standards & Development 2005-040

TO: Sheriff Donald F. Eslinger

VIA: Chain of Command [Signature]

FROM: Investigator Joy L. Williams [Signature]

DATE: April 14, 2005

SUBJECT: Recognition of Assistance

During the investigation of former Sheriff's Office employee Jacqueline Santoni, I received assistance from members of two other agencies.

Lieutenant Cynthia Williams of the Florida Highway Patrol was contacted and asked to pursue criminal charges against Ms. Santoni for fraudulently obtaining a State of Florida identification card. Lieutenant Williams made herself available to work the criminal case, met with administrators from our agency, and within three days obtained an arrest warrant for Santoni. Lieutenant Williams came to our office to serve the warrant, and made herself available anytime her assistance was needed. She handled the entire matter with the utmost professionalism.

Correctional Officer Inspector Zach Mulharan of the Florida Department of Corrections Central Florida Reception Center is the other individual who assisted in this investigation. Inspector Mulharan provided this office with any necessary paperwork needed from the Department of Corrections regarding Ms. Santoni and the inmate involved. Inspector Mulharan listened to recorded telephone conversations and provided copies of any pertinent calls to our office. He also provided relevant information that was found in the cell of the inmate. Inspector Mulharan was aware of the criminal charges forthcoming on Ms. Santoni and offered any assistance needed by Lieutenant Williams.

Without these two individuals, this investigation would have been much more difficult. They both went out of their way during the investigation to ensure this office had any necessary information needed.

I respectfully request these two individuals be formally recognized for their professionalism, and their willingness to assist our office.
